Middlemarch: A Study of Provincial Life George Eliot

Middlemarch: A Study of Provincial Life is a classic novel by George Eliot and is the epitome of her skill. This George Eliot novel investigates an anecdotal nineteenth-century Midlands town amidst changes toward modernisation. Political change is in the air and the building of rail lines changes both the physical and social scene. New advances in scientific experimentation create open division among the people and scandals hide behind respectability. The tranquil lives and dubious choices of everyday folk are displayed in the focal characters of the novel.
