The well-known book by Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, The Power of Positive Thinking, has sold over 20 million copies in 46 languages. Dr. Peale's message is as relevant today as the day it was published. In this new publication, Mary Lou Carney has used Dr. Peale's biblical tenets of positive thinking as a basis for a book aimed at the teenager growing up in the twenty first century. Carney tells how faith in God can overcome worries, unhappiness, peer pressure, self-doubts, even abusive parents. Carney peppers her book with Scripture quotations that give the basis for changed lives and real-life stories about teens who have put positive thinking into practice and achieved happier, more rewarding lives as a result. Today's teens face more pressures than ever; this is a practical book with practical answers for these real-life issues. Makes an excellent gift for all teens.
