In Relationship Tips for a Happy Marriage you'll discover that the answer to creating the connection and love that you're looking for may be as simple as improving your communication.

Even in the best relationships can sometimes be difficult, but when problems arise it can become almost impossible if your communication skills are lacking. In the Marriage Guide Series, relationship advice experts Beth Banning and Neill Gibson offer skills and advice that you won't find anywhere else.

In this book you will discover how to:

- Stop settling for anything less than what you really want
- Eliminate common, but little-known barriers to communication.
- Turn blame, shame and guilt into open, honest, and productive conversations
- Rebuild trust and create more honesty in your relationship.
- Increase the quality of love, commitment, and support you feel
- Resolve issues while restoring the closeness and connection that's been missing
- And much, more!

"This work has helped me deepen the connection I have with my spouse. We now communicate with more empathy, respect, kindness and love." ~ Kevin Monahan

You can have a happy Marriage, but it's time for a completely new approach to your problems. When you learn these practical skills and easy to apply practices you'll wonder why everyone doesn't teach them. Don't wait any longer — start learning how to improve your marriage today!
