Let Me Help Me, Help You D E Hannibal

In the pursuit of love and happiness, we must first understand, appreciate and accept life and the people in it. We focus so much on our present circumstances, that what we lose, is the joy and challenges that life is supposed to bring. I too have been there blaming others, the world, my faith and damning my life. I just wanted it all to go away. Soon after my breaking point, my break through happened. I realized then, all I was going through had to do with me. My feelings and thoughts of discouragement, doubt, fear, insecurities, past relationships and loneliness consumed me. Read my journey and experiences that helped me to achieve my spiritual, emotional, physical and financial independence. Update 3/22/12 I realized there were some errors in the printed copy, Im on it! However, my words still can be understood...Perfection is not what Im reaching for, but I will make the best effort to deliver a grammar free book. Thanks to all those who have already purchased!
