You may not know as much about your dog as you think, but you'd be surprised at just how much it knows about you. In fact, your dog may be much, much smarter than you realize.

Dogs really are man's best friend. They're our companions, our guardians, our helpers, and much more. But how does a dog's mind really work? Can dogs feel for us the same way we feel for them? Can they even understand us? In Inside of a Dog, Professor Alexandra Horowitz answers those and many more questions, revealing just how smart canines truly are and showing dog lovers everywhere how to make the relationship between dog and owner stronger than ever.

You will learn:

- How dogs use our expectations and routines to their advantage
- Why what humans see is vastly inferior to what dogs taste and smell
- How your dog tries to communicate with you daily-and how to listen.
