Double Down (Doubleback Book 2) Lissa Ford

After surviving a deadly attack by a psychopathic killer, homicide detective Rowan Muir is ready to take his relationship with ex-deputy sheriff and former ex-boyfriend Jude Anderson to the next level. Trouble is, Jude is happy with going slow. As in glacial. And, fair enough, their previous attempt as a couple wasn't exactly smooth sailing. It took murder and the volcanic attraction between them for both men to set old grievances aside and try once more.

But the past rears its ugly head again when Rowan's drug-addicted brother goes missing. Rowan is summoned home and is immediately mired in family dysfunction better seen in a rear-view mirror. When Jude agrees to help Rowan investigate his stepbrother's disappearance, Rowan fears his fragile relationship with Jude won't survive the stress.

Being back in his hometown dredges up old fears, a lot of baggage, and murder allegations. Soon Rowan has to decide if he is going to double down on his relationship with Jude, or if it's wiser to pick up his chips and split for good.
