The Second Fathers of Confederation Harry S. Wylie

The world has called in its debt and the United States is in continuous filibuster. Deviation from historical normalcy morphs the crisis into auto wars on the highways and byways of America. Corporate executives, championed by auto industry leaders, create a viable third political party, but will mysterious murders and assassinations, attacks on military bases, mafia involvement and scientific breakthroughs sideline our heroes? Can they actually win the Congress and the White House, allowing sweeping changes to the constitution, or has America finally reached unavoidable cataclysmic implosion?
