The boy band fad swept the world in the late 90's. Pop group staples revolutionized modern pop, but even the late 90's wasn't the first time this has occurred. Pop music's landscape has always adjusted to the recent trends and climate. The Beatles swarmed America in the late 60's. The boy band fad swept the world in the late 90's when groups like 'NSync, Backstreet Boys, and 90 Degrees became kings of the modern pop landscape. Yet as the music moves on, we see new torchbearers move forward with strong pop melodies, sweeping sensibilities, and celebrity madness. This direction is clearly going one way with the latest pop band sensation, One Direction. Find out everything you always wanted to know about your favorite band in this book!
