All That I Am, I Owe to God Elaine Gates

All That I Am, I Owe To God, is the real me. It is the story of some parts of my life that almost killed me, but by the Grace of God, I survived. I asked that you, as the reader, do not dwell on the addiction, the abuse or the infidelity. But that you look deeper to see how God's intervention changed my life. My prayer for this book has always been that someone is helped by reading my book. That some young woman, who may not be so young anymore, who as a child may have suffered from low self esteem or felt as if she just did not fit in, this book is for you to let you know that you are not alone, saved or unsaved, Christian or non-Christian, You are not alone.
