Review of Orthopaedics

Dr. Miller and a team of orthopaedic surgeons have distilled the broad body of literature now available on orthopaedics into a single, handy volume that covers it all for readers crisply, conveniently, and comprehensibly. This informative text prompts current understanding with coverage of biomechanics, pediatric disorders, perioperative problems, sports medicine, and much more! It includes more than 500 easy-to-read, easy-to-reference charts, tables, and illustrations. Plus, a unique panel of surgeons has been chosen to review each chapter - newly board-certified practitioners who ensure the text reflects the essential knowledge readers really need to perform to their utmost potential on the exam...and more experienced surgeons who verify that the book includes what is necessary for a successful practice today.
